SUSQUEHANNA TRAIL WOODWORKERS GUILD

FROM THE VICE - PRESIDENT'S DESK

As many of you know, I have a large collection of (donated) woodworking books stored in my garage. I've been bringing a random selection of them to the meetings each month as a modest fund-raiser for our organization. Books-by-donation, and it's proven to be successful.

- STWG makes a few extra dollars each month.
- Members get a low-cost way to read about a topic that may be new to them, perhaps refresh their knowledge on a familiar topic, and improve the home library.
- And just as important, a few more books leave my garage. The pile of books is taller than I am, but over the months, my garage will empty a bit more, and members bookcases will grow. That's a win-win for everyone.

Happy reading!
