PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We had a great time at Wood Works 08 in the Toyota Center. Our guild practically swept the awards in the Sawdust Cafe competition. Ribbons were seen on many of our entries throughout the three days. Our booth, along with our SAW buddies next door, was a popular stop for visitors and we gleaned around fifty applications to the club. The event's organizer said that attendance was down about 30% and he said that was typical for their other events, as well. He felt, however, that the show would return next year. Hopefully, so will we. Woodworking is a great way to take your mind off of distractions in your life. (Just what could I be referring to?)
Dennis

THIS MONTH'S MEETING

This month we will be having our Annual Holiday Social! This meeting is always enjoyable because it is a joint gathering with the Susquehanna Area Woodworkers of PA (SAW-PA). Former President Ray Parsons has again agreed to host the social. His home commands a tremendous view of areas of York County. If you wish you may bring along a covered dish or snack to share. Beverages will be provided by the Guild. Meet with your friendly wood workers, eat lots of great food and enjoy the view!

LAST MONTH'S MEETING

The Guild had a very enjoyable visit to Olde Mill Cabinet Shoppe. Beth Naylor was very gracious and her hospitality was enjoyed by all!

WoodWorks 2008

The 2008 WoodWorks Show was a great success! Below are some of the entries in the SawDust Cafe and also views of the booth provided by Bob Aspey!

A Message from the Past President:

At the Wood Works Show we had a long conversation with Two Guys, a local hardwood lumber in Thomasville. They had some nice pieces there and agreed to give us a ten percent discount. A map will follow. These discounts add up. I recently got ten percent from Klingspor, the sandpaper company. The list of sponsors and suppliers in our newsletter all give up a discount. And finally, I sincerely hope that all will come to our social.. I will make a strong effort to clean to the extent that I will vacuum the dining room table. I'm also looking forward to seeing all of the Harrisburg club people!
